

JOHN EATS THE LITTLE BOOK

Getting The Bride Ready, Part 4

Let me at this time, touch back on the point where John was told to take the little book from the angel's hand. When the Church has heard the thunders, do not forget what the last verses of chapter 10, say. John was told to go to that angel while he was still on this side of the picture, the side that pertains to Gentiles, and take the scroll from Him. John did and the angel said to him, "Take it, and eat it up; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey." To John, it was pictorial, but it was pointing to our day and hour. He asked for this scroll, the angel gave it to him and told him, take it, and eat it up, and it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey, but in thy belly bitter. As I said the other night, It was like a bad case of heartburn. When he obeyed, it happened exactly as stated. Then he was told by that angel, For thou must prophesy again. Now listen to me people, and think, That was the apostle John; that physically lived in 96 A.D., but he had been projected by the spirit way into the future tense, and what he saw was in no way relative to 96 A.D. We have to depend on a revelation of God's word, to have an understanding of all of this. The point is, The Bride of Christ is going to learn something about it from now on until we move past this line. I have to say, When that hour of time comes fully upon us, there will definitely be an element of called and chosen men that will eat that scroll, and whatever that eating means, we know it will acquaint that ministry with something about that scroll of redemption and how it applies to the living element of the bride of Christ. It is going to bring about a time factor relative to how God will transition from one element to the other and the effects of what He does for each. When the angel said to John, "Thou must prophesy again before many peoples, and nations, and tongues, and kings," He was not talking about just one man prophesying: I have to say to you, That is a universal picture, around this globe, as the Bride has been brought into a state of urgency and expectation, there is going to be an anointing come upon them like nothing they have ever experienced before. It is going to be a prophetic insight, because it said, Thou shalt prophesy before kings, governors, nations, languages, so on and so forth. We said earlier, that we are a little nucleus of people the world at large does not even know exists, and the greater percentage of them could not care less, but God knows: That is what makes the difference. Sometimes we look at ourselves and wonder what our future may hold, when we see ourselves as nothing in the eyes of others, especially when we see all the religious big shots on TV, those that act like they have GOD at their command, to do whatsoever they demand. Well the truth is, God lets them put on a show that can deceive all those who have no love for the true revelation of HIS WORD. The political world knows who they are, where they speak from and all such. That is the kind of religion most of them support. Nevertheless, when that anointing that was on John, the anointing that caused him to see the things he wrote about, returns again to close this era out, I cannot help but believe that is the time the anointing is going to cause chosen men to see things relative to their time factor, especially in the political realm. I also believe it will not be strange, for God to deal with many in an unusual way, in a prophetic sense. The Lord will say, Make your way to Washington D.C. and deliver this message before the house. Do not ask, How is that going to be possible? God Himself will make a way where there seems to be no way.
